nue and Torrance Boulevard to Hadd Contracting Co.;

- Adopted as policy a statement which denied requests for angular parking in cul-de-sacs;

- Adopted a new ordinance restricting hours of business for pool rooms, billiard halls, bowling alleys, and similar places of business;

- Approved the recommendations of the City Manager regarding additions to the City Hall; and,

- Approved initial change orders for the Joslyn Recreation Center cutting the contract price by $6,500.

The council adjourned until Aug. 20 because several members will be attending meetings in Texas.

district, asked the trustees for a $30 a month increase across the board, effective Sept. 1, and an additional $10 a month as of Jan. 1.

Hogan also warned the board that if recent cuts in the maintenance budget for the district result in speedups of work being done by classified employees, the Union would file grievances.

"We will take very, very strong measures," said Hogan, "if the maintenance work load per man is increased."

THE SALARIES will be discussed at a later meeting, but the duty-free lunch program was adopted because state law permits such expenses to be charged to the community service budget, which had to be adopted in final form Monday. The community service tax rate will be four cents per $100 valuation, a cut of six cents over the tax rate last year.

The board also heard a request from the Pop Warner Football Assn. for use of the North High Stadium on Sundays. The request was held for study since the North High field is already being used by six teams for games. The Pop Warner Assn. and the district will meet to try to work out an alternate plan.

The trustees awarded bids for miscellaneous equipment for nearly $26,000 and awarded a contract to furnish bread for the district's cafeterias to the DiCarlo Baking Co.

SEVERAL CHANGE orders for construction now under way were approved, and the board employed a testing laboratory for construction at West High School.

Also on the agenda was a request that escrow be opened on a school site in Tract 2200, near Crenshaw and Sepulveda Boulevards, which was approved.

Final adoption of the 1963-64 budget, calling for expenditures of $14,587,706, was concluded after a public hearing. Only objection to the budget was Lynn's often-repeated statement that he still opposes a full-time public information officer.

The board will meet again on Aug. 19.

Injunction On Pickets Considered to return for trial Aug. 29 on charges of trespassing and contributing to the delinquency of minors.

The 16 were arrested a week ago in the fact.

CITY PROSECUTOR Charles Catterlin said yesterday that trials scheduled for Aug. 13, 19, and 26 will be held in the Redondo Beach council chamber "to accommodate the crowds," and that he believed it might take a panel of 150 jurors to complete a panel of 12 for the trials.

The sit-in demonstrators who have been arrested as trespassers are to be tried in groups of 25, and each defendant has five challenges and the group has 10 more, Catterlin explained. A total of 135 peremptory challenges could be made before a jury is selected.

CATTERLIN reported also that he had been told by attorney A. L. Wirin that a petition was to be held with the State Supreme Court challenging the city's curfew ordinance.

A request by Catterlin for assistance in the prosecutions was turned down by the District Attorney's office, he told The HERALD. Catterlin is handling the prosecutions alone in addition to his regular duties as city prosecutor.

Another 72 persons (some of them repeaters) were arrested last weekend as the Congress of Racial Equality resumed massive picketing of the housing development offices in the 23400 block of Evalyn Avenue.

Thirty-one of those arrested Sunday were charged with violating the city's new curfew ordinance which was upheld in a court test last week.

Also arrested Sunday was Robert M. Lupo, 38-year-old editor of the Torrance Press, who was charged with interfering with the booking of 10 arrested pickets.

He was released later on $525 bail. Requests of attorneys for the arrested integrationists to have the standard $262.50 bail reduced or eliminated were denied by Judges Otto B. Willett and Donald Armstrong. The two municipal judges made the decision after Judge William B. Keene declined to accept arguments on the motion when presented by attorney A. L. Wirin. Judge Keene said Wirin had announced he was filing an affidavit of prejudice against him, and that it would be improper for him to hear the bail pleas.

GETS MEDAL... Airman 1/C Wayne A. Strehle of Harbor City receives the Air Force Commendation Medal during ceremonies at Dyess AFB, Tex. The airman received the medal for service during an airlift support mission with the 82nd Airborne Division. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Strehle and a graduate of Narbonne High School. Col. Burl W. McLaughlin made the presentation.
